A. J. "Jack" Cleary.....	Steward
W. L. McGriff.....	Supervisor of Racing
Robert Kelly.....	Director of Commission Judges

When racing was curtailed the personnel of the office was reduced to the following employees who worked the entire season: J. A. Reisinger, Office Accountant; Jane Austin, Secretary; and Laurie W. Mann, Secretary in the Tallahassee Office.

The Commission highly commends its officials and office staff for their loyalty to the Commission and for the efficient and conscientious manner in which their services were performed.

During the past fiscal year the Commission held nine meetings. These meetings were held generally with reference to application for racing dates, and administrative matters; for the licensing of track officials, review of Steward rulings and decisions; and principally with reference to the conduct of horse and dog race meetings and Jai-Alai exhibitions in the State of Florida. The meetings were held at the following designated cities:

The Racing Associations licensed by the Commission to conduct racing in Florida have, during the past season, cooperated with the Commission and carefully followed its rules and regulations, together with the suggestions of the military and governmental officials in the matter of transportation and saving essential materials.

The Commission has maintained a careful check of each of the race track associations to see that they have complied with the provision of the Law which states that 85% of all persons, except racing officials employed at the race tracks, shall be citizens and residents of the State of Florida. Each of said associations have adhered strictly to the Law in employing qualified Florida citizens and residents during their race meeting.

Members of the press have been very fair and cooperative in reporting the activities of racing in Florida which has contributed greatly to the success of racing during the past season.

During the past season racing has been confronted with many and unusual conditions such as blackouts, the curtailment in gasoline supplies, the Federal Government's elimination of train and bus service as a means of getting to the tracks and away from them at the conclusion of the racing program for the day, and as a result thereof, the racing program was substantially curtailed, particularly horse racing. The Commission is pleased to report that notwithstanding conditions never before experienced many of the tracks were able to carry on and complete their entire race meetings.

The following tracks operated during the 1942-1943 racing season the full number of days allocated to each of them:

Associated Outdoor Clubs, Inc., Tampa, Florida.
Fronton Exhibition Company, Miami, Florida.
Jacksonville Kennel Club, Inc., Jacksonville, Florida.
Miami Beach Kennel Club, Inc., Miami Beach, Florida.
Palm Beach Kennel Club, West Palm Beach, Florida.
St. Petersburg Kennel Club, St. Petersburg, Florida.
West Flagler Kennel Club, Inc., Miami, Florida.

The following tracks were directly affected by existing conditions which primarily resulted from the war and failed to operate entirely or operated only a portion of their race meeting:

HORSE TRACKS

Gables Racing Association, Inc. (Tropical Park)
Operated only fifteen days of its race meeting.
Miami Jockey Club, Inc. (Hialeah Park)
Did not operate during the 1942-1943 racing season.

DOG TRACKS

Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, Inc., operated ten days of its ninety day race meeting.
Broward County Kennel Club, Inc., operated thirty-one days of its ninety day race meeting.
Biscayne Kennel Club, Inc., operated sixty-four days of its eighty two day race meeting.

The 1943 Legislature, during the opening days of its session, enacted a law extending the dog racing season to May 31st and provided that those tracks that had failed to operate the full number of days allotted to them might continue to operate until they had operated the full number of days of their meet or until May 31st. As a result of the passage of this act, St. Petersburg Kennel Club completed its entire meet, operating until April 27th, 1943, and Biscayne Kennel Club operated until May 31st, which constituted sixty-four days of the allotted eighty-two days.

With only one of the horse tracks having operated fifteen days and several of the dog race meetings having been greatly curtailed, pari-mutuel wagering at horse and dog tracks and jai-alai fronton showed a decrease from $63,601,585.00 to $26,658,646.00 for the 1942-1943 season. Horse wagering for the fifteen days at Tropical Park was only $2,739,401.00 compared with $38,735,224.00 for ninety-six days at Hialeah and Tropical last season.

Dog racing was not as seriously affected as horse racing. Pari-mutuel wagering at the dog tracks for the 1942-1943 season was $22,825,821.00 against $23,446,936.00 for 1941-1942. The difference was due chiefly to curtailed meetings at the Sanford-Orlando, Hollywood and Biscayne tracks, there being one-hundred fifty-seven less racing nights than the previous season.

There was a large decrease in attendance during the present season, due primarily to the failure of the horse tracks to operate and the difficulty in getting to and from the tracks as a result of gasoline rationing and other conditions occasioned by the war. The attendance for the 1942-1943 season was 854,256 as compared with 2,195,080 for the 1941-1942 season. As a result of this decrease in attendance, there was a decrease in the state's tax on attendance from $262,257.83 to $88,168.96.

The state receives the greater portion of its racing revenue from horse tracks and as a result of the horse tracks being unable to operate and several dog track meets having been curtailed, together with transportation problems and other conditions that materially affected racing, there was a serious decrease in the state's racing revenue. The state's revenue for the 1942-1943 season was $1,066,087.70 as compared with $4,392,861.86 for the 1941-1942 season.

Realizing the racing season might be seriously curtailed in Florida, the Commission at the beginning of the season greatly reduced the number of its employees at the various tracks, and on January 7, 1943, reduced its office space more than a third and the personnel of its office approximately eighty percent. As the season progressed, further reductions were made from time to time in the Commission's personnel at the various tracks so as to keep the cost of supervision at a minimum. A comparative statement is hereto attached showing the reduction in cost of supervision. You will notice that the statement is based on the number of days that each track operated during the current season as compared with the same number of days that each track operated during the 1941-1942 racing season.

The Commission feels that the conduct of racing under its supervision during the past season has been clean, without scandal or serious suspicion. Each day's racing has provided relaxation and entertainment for the people of Florida and our guests from other States.

For the past fiscal year the Commission has carried on a program of strict enforcement of the racing laws and economy in supervision and management.

Attached hereto and made a part of this report is a statement of receipts and disbursements of the Commission for the 1942-1943 racing season, comparative data for the 1941-1942 and the 1942-1943 racing season, data pertaining to pari-mutuel handle and State's revenue derived from each licensee.

The Commission, as in the past, will continue to exercise strict supervision and discipline over racing associations, Jai-Alai exhibitions and all parties in any way connected with racing activities. The Commission has at all times endeavored to protect the interest of the public at large and each association. No one has been denied the opportunity of a full hearing by the Commission upon any matter pertaining to racing.

We wish to express our appreciation for the confidence and trust reposed in us in the administration of racing in Florida and we pledge to you and the people of Florida our continued loyalty.

Respectfully submitted,

FLORIDA STATE RACING COMMISSION
