Volusia County Kennel Club, Inc. 90 days—Open June 2, thru September 14, 1948. It will be noted that the season of Volusia County Kennel Club, Inc. extends for only twenty-five racing days within the fiscal year covered by this report. It will also be noted from an examination of the figures hereinafter submitted in connection with certain of the dog racing associations that some of these operators did not conduct racing for the full number of days allocated above. This was due to a seven day period of cessation of dog racing at certain of the tracks while negotiations were being conducted with an association of dog owners. This seven day period was made up by granting additional days for racing wherever possible within the statutory racing season for the tracks involved.

ATTENDANCE AND PLAY

During the fiscal year covered by this report the eighteen operations subject to the supervision of this Commission, consisting of four horse tracks, thirteen dog tracks and one jai-alai fronton, operated for a total of 1318 racing or playing days. These activities attracted a total paid attendance of 4,344,479 patrons who wagered over one hundred and eighty million dollars upon the races and games scheduled by the various operators. While the attendance was only slightly under that of the preceding fiscal year for all activities, pari-mutuel wagering was approximately 7% less than during the previous year. This was so in spite of the fact that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947 only 1,298 racing or playing days were scheduled. However, such decrease was slight when compared with the trend of pari-mutuel wagering in other states, such being much greater than has so far been experienced in Florida.

We need not point out that racing constitutes one of the major attractions for winter visitors in the southern part of the State, and now with the inauguration of summer dog racing at Daytona Beach and Pensacola during the recent years, this sport attracts and furnishes many of our summer visitors with a type of recreation not theretofore enjoyed. Of course the figures on paid attendance do not reflect the number of owners of both dogs and horses who return to Florida each year for the purpose of racing their animals as well as to enjoy numerous other winter and summer attractions.

RACING A SUBSTANTIAL INDUSTRY

The records of the Commission reveal that during the year covered by this report 9,294 occupational licenses were issued to persons employed in the activities under the scope of this Commission. While many of these licensees were not directly employed by the track operators and hence not subject to the provision of the Statute which requires 85% of such latter class of employees to be bona-fide citizens and residents of Florida, nevertheless, the total number indicates that racing with pari-mutuel wagering provides employment for a substantial number of people. Of the total number of occupational licenses issued approximately 5,000 were directly employed by the various track operators and of this number 85% were Florida citizens. This provision of law has been carefully complied with by the Commission, and the racing associations and assures a large number of our citizens a means of livelihood.

In addition to the employment feature of the sports involved, the sale of feed, food, medications and other services rendered the animals involved alone constitutes a substantial commercial enterprise required for the benefit of owners, trainers, jockeys and others directly connected with the sport.

STATE INCOME FROM PARI-MUTUEL TAXES

An examination of the detailed statistical reports hereinafter set out in this report will disclose that the total State revenue for the current fiscal year from pari-mutuel wagering and kindred taxes aggregated $13,-542,407.27. Of this sum 1.76% or $238,743.77 was expended by this Commission in connection with its year-round activities in carrying out and enforcing the provisions of the laws of Florida and its various regulations in this respect. Thus it can be seen that the revenue derived from this source can be compared favorably with any other State revenue insofar as costs of collection, supervision and policing may be concerned. During the past seventeen years Florida has received slightly more than seventy-four million dollars from pari-mutuel wagering and at the present time has more individual tracks in operation than ever before in its history. During the past three years more than forty-three million dollars has been realized from this source and the average cost of collection and supervision throughout the entire seventeen year period has averaged 4.23%. The average cost during the past three full years of supervision by this Commission was 1.74% even though as previously pointed out this Commission now has eighteen different operations under its supervision at the present time.

This tax revenue is earmarked specifically for the benefit of the individual counties and the old age assistance fund. The basic 3% tax upon pari-mutuel play which is distributed to the counties of the State upon a per-capita basis resulted in the distribution of the sum of $83,-667.67 to each county of this State during the past fiscal year. While this sum was approximately $7,000.00 less than the year next preceeding, nevertheless, it is greatly in excess of the amount of $33,000.00 guaranteed by law to the various counties from the General Revenue Fund in the event the share of each of such counties from this source shall amount to less than $33,000.00 during any one year.

STRIKES AND STOPPAGES

From time to time during the past few years disputes and disagreements have arisen between the operators of the various tracks and other groups who were likewise interested in and essential to the conduct of racing. These disputes and disagreements have thus far resulted only in brief stoppages of the activity concerned while the differences between the parties were being resolved. Racing is not comparable to any other industry in this connection. A racing day or racing night lost during a brief racing season can never be retrieved and these stoppages result not only in substantial losses to the parties directly involved but also result in quite substantial losses in revenue to the State. At one horse track during the current year a strike on the part of horse owners called because of a disagreement with the management over the size of purses resulted in a cessation of horse racing for two days at that track. These two days were spent in negotiations and the disagreement was finally settled but the racing season was thus curtailed by two days and the track involved operated only thirty-eight days of its forty day seasonal allocation. On an average daily basis that particular track enjoyed a play which produced over $50,000.00 per day in State revenue and thus $100,000.00 or more was lost to the State by reason of the disagreement and resulting stoppage. The same situation arose later in the current year when a disagreement existed between an association of dog owners and all of the then operating dog tracks. This disagreement resulted in a cessation of dog racing for a period of seven consecutive racing days and it is estimated that more than $200,000.00 was lost to the State by reason of that disagreement.

Such disagreements have in the past and will in the future probably continue to arise from time to time and result in losses of revenue not only to the parties involved but to the State as well which might possibly be avoided if some provision could be made or formula agreed upon which would assure the continuance of racing while the negotiations between the parties in difference were being conducted.

During both of these incidents referred to above the Racing Commission, through its members, officials and employees exerted every possible effort to reconcile the parties and effect a resumption of racing. It is our belief that the losses to all parties concerned were unnecessary and should be avoided in the future.

Co-operation With Other Agencies

An outbreak of Swamp Fever during the past year at one of the northern tracks caused Florida and many of the other racing states to place quarantine restrictions upon the shipping of thoroughbred race horses into this State. The Racing Commission was obliged to call upon the State Live Stock and Sanitary Board for assistance in this connection and received the closest and most effective co-operation from that agency of the State during such epizootic.

Members of the Florida Citrus Commission requested the Racing Commission to assist them in popularizing the use of fresh orange juice and other citrus products by the installation of juice bars at some of the horse tracks under the supervision of this Commission. By cooperation with the operators and concessionaires at the various tracks equipment was installed under the supervision of the Citrus Commission and thousands of patrons at these horse tracks were furnished an opportunity to obtain fresh citrus juices, attractively served for a reasonable price. These juice bars attracted large patronage and much attention and this Commission was very glad of the opportunity to cooperate with another State agency in this connection.

RACING COMMISSION LABORATORY

Approximately forty-five hundred samples of horse and dog urine and horse saliva were collected at the various tracks under the supervision of the Commission veterinarians and thereafter submitted to the Chief Chemist for the Racing Commission for analysis for the purpose of determining whether or not the animals from which the samples were taken had been improperly stimulated or depressed prior to the races.

Only five of such samples were found to be positive for stimulants and each of these cases were promptly handled by the Racing Commission. The Commission laboratory is under the supervision of Dr. Elsie S. Bellows, Ph. D., who serves as Chief Chemist for the Racing Commission and is recognized as an expert in this field. Dr. Bellows is a member of the National Association of Official Racing Chemists and while employed by this Commission has done considerable research in the field of microchemical identification of the various drugs available for use as improper stimulants or depressants of racing animals.

The small number of positives indicates that this highly improper and unlawful method of affecting the results of a race is not used to any great extent in this State.

NEW TRACKS

Since 1945 one additional horse track and four additional dog tracks have begun operation in Florida.

During the past fiscal year Volusia County Kennel Club, Inc., commenced its operations and from the results of the first twenty-five days of its opening season dog racing in the Daytona Beach area will prove a success. A permit to conduct dog racing has also been granted to Panama City Kennel Club and such permit has been ratified by local option election in Bay County. Permits have likewise been granted to Palm Beach Jockey Club for the conduct of harness racing in Palm Beach County and Ponce de Leon Raceway Association for the conduct of harness racing in St. Johns County. These permits have also been ratified by local option elections in the respective counties but so far none of these three permittees have constructed a track suitable to conduct a race meeting.

A permit to conduct jai-alai fronton is also outstanding in Hillsborough County but that permittee has likewise thus far failed to erect the necessary facilities for the playing of the game of jai-alai.

Because of the continuance of war time building restrictions the harness racing permits mentioned above were extended by legislation during the 1947 session which increased the time otherwise provided by law within which such tracks should be constructed. The other two permittees mentioned above still have additional time to construct facilities under the provisions of law requiring that such facilities must be constructed within twelve months after the ratification of such permits.

NEW LEGISLATION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Section 550.24, Florida Statutes 1941, intended to make it a crime for anyone to connive with others to prearrange the result of a race or to stimulate or depress a horse or dog and provided penalties therefor. However, this act did not denounce the "unlawful" connivance or stimulation and thus has been construed by the courts as failing to denounce a criminal act. It is recommended that appropriate legislation be passed at the next session of the legislature to correct this defect.

Section 550.01 Florida Statutes 1941 provides for the terms of office of the members of the Racing Commission and fixes the expiration date as the first Monday in January at the end of such two year terms. Thus the terms of all members of the Commission not only expire at the same time but come to an end during the peak of the racing season. It is recommended that legislation in the future be passed providing for the staggering of the terms of the various members of this Commission and providing further that such terms expire at the end of a fiscal year rather than as now provided. Such a change would enable new members of future Commissions to have the benefit of the experience acquired by the members remaining on the board at the time of the appointment of such new members and as well prevent a possible change of policy and personnel during the height of a racing season.

We further recommend that legislation be passed denouncing the offense of bookmaking wherever it may be committed. The ordinary anti-gambling statutes were not designed and are not sufficient for this purpose and the provisions of Chapter 24345, Laws of Florida, 1947, prohibit bookmaking only when committed on the grounds of a permit holder.

Reference is also made to previous discussion in this report of strikes and stoppages and cessation of racing caused by disputes and disagreements between participants and organizations connected with racing. It might be well for the next legislature to seriously consider the passage of legislation for the benefit of the State of Florida which would prohibit, prevent, or at least decrease the possibilities of loss to the State because of such disagreements and the ensuing strikes or stoppages resulting therefrom.

This is the fourth and final report to you as Governor by the present Racing Commission as same has been constituted during your administration. It would be amiss to fail to state at this time the very deep appreciation which we as members of this Commission have for the confidence you have reposed in us. Insofar as the actions of this Commission are concerned we are of course perfectly willing to let the record speak for itself but we are particularly grateful to you as Governor of this great State in reposing in us as members of the State Racing Commission the duties and responsibilities of supervising one of the most important of the State's activities and we sincerely trust that our administration of these responsibilities has reflected due credit upon your administration as Governor of Florida.

The service rendered by this Commission has been for the most part well received and favorably commented upon. Such service has resulted from the loyalty and diligence of certain executives and officials named by this Commission and we would like to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation to the various employees who have carried out the mandates and functions of the Commission during its term.

We are particularly grateful for the assistance of Mr. Robert Kelly who has been for the past seven years employed by this Commission and who has served as Supervisor of Racing for the past five years. Mrs. Inez Martin has served most capably and efficiently as Office Secretary and has been employed by the Commission since July, 1944. Dr. Elsie S. Bellows, Ph.D., Chief Chemist of the Commission, Dr. E. D. Clawson as Chief Veterinarian, Mr. Hollis Rinehart Jr., as Steward of the Miami horse tracks, Mr. C. E. Ware as Steward at Sunshine Park Racing Association and Mr. Irving Harrington, as Chief Auditor for the Commission have each merited the confidence and exhibited the ability and qualifications required by their respective positions.

This Commission and its individual members would like to also express sincere appreciation for the close cooperation and many constructive suggestions had and received during the past three and one-half years from the racing associations operating in this State. With the benefit of such cooperation the interests of all concerned, including that of the State of Florida, have been much more easily fostered and protected under the supervision of this Commission.

As heretofore stated and hereafter reflected in the schedules appended to this report, racing has now become a year-round activity and the supervision of such sport one of the more important functions of State government. We sincerely trust that in the future the continued diligence of the Racing Commission and its employees, in co-operation with the track operators and other participants will continue it upon a high plane so that it will always merit the confidence of the public, who after all are its chief supporters through pari-mutuel wagering at the various tracks
